In reply to your letter of 25 June, I still cannot give you any additional information about a job. That clipping you attached to your letter does not belong to us at all and was put out by the Civil Service Commission and some agency other than the Central Intelligence Group. We have never asked them to get any people for us.

We are still in an indeterminate position as regards statutory authority and the budget, and it is impossible at this time to give you any more definite answer.

Very sincerely yours,
